LOCAL SURGEON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE MIDWEST SURGICAL ASSOCIATION

PEORIA, IL – At the 50th meeting of the Midwest Surgical Association, Peoria Surgeon, James R. DeBord, M.D. was elected president of the association. DeBord, who is Professor of Clinical Surgery and Chief of the Division of Vascular Surgery and Vice Chairman of the Department of Surgery at the University of Illinois College of Medicine at Peoria, is a member of Peoria Surgical Group, Ltd. He began practice in Peoria July 1, 1979.

DeBord is the fourth president of the Midwest Surgical Association from Peoria and from Peoria Surgical Group, having been preceded as president by his father, Robert DeBord, M.D. (1969) and partners William Marshall, M.D. (1973) and Norman Estes, M.D. (1999).

The Midwest Surgical Association is composed of nearly 600 academic and private practice surgeons from throughout the Midwest. The 50th meeting was held August 5-8, 2007 in Framingham, PA.

Peoria Surgical Group, Ltd. is a 15 physician group of specialty surgeons that has been in practice since 1952 with current offices at 420 NE Glen Oak Avenue and 8600 State Rt. 91 in Peoria.
